

72

CHILDREN DIED IN

IN

STATE CUSTODY

WHEN

JIM

MARTIN

WAS

THE

HEAD

OF

GEORGIA'S

DFCS...

Friends of Greg Hecht
171 North Main St.
Jonesboro, GA 30236

FPO GH0604

Paid for by Friends of Greg Hecht

PRESORT
STANDARD
US POSTAGE
PAID
TMPD

WHY SHOULD WE TRUST JIM TO PROTECT OUR KIDS NOW?

Jim Martin wants to be our Lt. Governor, but last time Jim was in charge of something important, 72 kids died...in fact, Martin resigned in disgrace because of it.

Caleb Woods was severely beaten and tortured over a two week period. DFCS had received seven complaints that Caleb was being beaten. <sup>1</sup>

Kyshawn Punter was two years old. DFCS returned Kyshawn to his home twice despite being told that his father was beating him. <sup>2</sup>

*—And what did Jim Martin say after the deaths of two boys and 70 other kids.
“I don’t feel defeated.”<sup>3</sup>*

After several warnings Jim Martin FAILED TO PREVENT the deaths of Caleb Woods, Kyshawn Punter and 70 other children. If Jim Martin COULDN’T PROTECT OUR CHILDREN when it was his job, why SHOULD WE TRUST HIM to fight to protect our children as Lt. Governor?

Check the facts:

1. Atlanta Journal-Constitution, “‘I Don’t Feel Defeated,’ Ousted DHR Chief Says,” September 21, 2003.

2. Atlanta Journal-Constitution, “Child Welfare Chief Resigns,” September 19, 2003.

3. Atlanta Journal-Constitution, “‘I Don’t Feel Defeated,’ Ousted DHR Chief Says,” September 21, 2003.